

PRESS RELEASE

WHY NOT THEATRE COMPANY presents in English

SNAKE IN THE GRASS by ALAN AYCKBOURN

Directed by Barry McKenna

For years spinster Miriam has cared for her father in the decaying family home, helped by the creepily polite nurse, Alice. Upon the old man's death Miriam's older sister, ex-alcoholic Annabel, comes home after 30 years in Tasmania, only to find that most of their father's estate has been left to her. But that's not all she finds. In a series of comic and chilling twists and turns, blackmail, recriminations, shifting relationships and the unleashing of haunting, childhood memories.....all is not quite as it may first appear.

Snake in the Grass is an ingenious, spellbinding black comedy-thriller from Sir Alan Ayckbourn or, to use his own words "a ghost story".

"A creepily, scarily, eerily enjoyable evening" – The Sunday Times

"It's a suspense drama about murder, blackmail and haunting....there is...depth and subtlety..." – Financial Times
